FREE Medicare Workshop

The Nottoway Public Libraries invite seniors to attend a FREE Medicare Workshop presented by Piedmont Senior Resources on Thursday, November 13th at the Burkeville Library. A seminar with a question and answer session will take place from 1 pm to 2 pm followed by an Open Enrollment with screenings for Extra Help and the Medicare Savings Program. Seniors will learn to stay healthy with better Medicare benefits.

There are many preventive services available for free such as:

- Diabetes Screening
- Cardiovascular Disease Screening
- Annual Wellness Exam
- Bone Mass Measuring
- Breast Cancer Screening

- Medical Nutrition Therapy
- Glaucoma Tests
- Prostrate Cancer Screening

Learn more about preventive services and Medicare benefits available by talking to local counselors.

For more information contact the Burkeville Library at 434-767-5555.

Author Beth Macy brings to life John Bassett's fascinating family furniture business with wildly colorful stories from an American industry that once ruled the world—and might again see better days. As Macy shows how he uses legal maneuvers, factory efficiencies, and sheer will to save hundreds of jobs, she also discovers the hidden history of industry in America.

Special Events

Crewe Library

During the month of November new works of local artist William Clarke will be on display in the cabinets at the Crewe Library. This talented artist will be showing some new items and as always with his work right away you will see art that draws the eye to brilliant colors and shapes.

He has expanded the media he uses for his folk art style of painting to include plates and cheese boxes.

The public is invited to enjoy unique displays at the Crewe Library monthly.

For more information please call the Crewe Library at 434-645-8688.

Blackstone Library

The Friends of the Blackstone Library will continue their annual tradition of handing out FREE children's books and candy canes during the Holiday

Open House after the Grand Illumination in Seay Park. Families are invited to stop by the front porch of the Blackstone Library on Friday, November 28th from 6 to 7 pm to receive a book and candy cane.

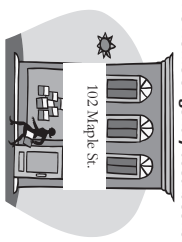

For additional information contact David

Bolter, President of the Friends of the Blackstone Library at 434-292-3836.
