Author Tours Nottoway County

(Nottoway County, Virginia – March 2, 2017)

Thornton Cline will return to Virginia next week and will present his latest book, The Amazing, Incredible Shrinking Drums, to students at the Blackstone Primary School. Cline will also be featured in a special Story Time session at the Blackstone branch of the Nottoway County Public Library on Friday, March 10 at 10:30. He will be reading Perfectly Precious Poohlicious, a book for preschool children that includes a number of songs that Cline composed.

Cline is an instructor at Cumberland University (TN) and is a resident of Hendersonville, Tennessee. An award-winning musician, he has been nominated for several Dove and Grammy Awards and has twice been honored as “Songwriter of the Year.” Cline is also the author of fourteen books; a Spanish edition of his first children's book, the best-selling The Amazing Incredible Shrinking Violin, has just been released. Information about Cline’s children’s series as well as his adult novels and non-fiction books can be found at www.thorntoncline.com/.
