Employment Workshop Series Planned

(Nottoway County, Virginia – March 31, 2017)

The Nottoway County Literacy Program has scheduled a series of computer-related classes to help residents seeking employment. The first of the sessions, Job Searching and the Internet: Effectively searching for job opportunities online, will be offered at the Blackstone Library at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 8.

Sessions held at the Burkeville Branch will address Resume Development (April 22 at noon) and Writing an Effective Cover Letter (May 6 at noon).

The final workshop in the series is planned for 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 20 at the Crewe Library. The topic for this session is LinkedIn and Your Job Search.

Job-seekers are asked to register for any and all of the workshops by calling Literacy Program Director Sally Crager at 434-645-9594.
