Richmond Native Returns to Nottoway County

(Crewe, Virginia – September 25, 2016)

Next week, Richmond native Thornton Cline will be returning to Nottoway County. Cline is a best-selling author, award winning songwriter, and accomplished musician and he will be providing multi-media presentations for children at the area's primary schools.

In addition to five children's books and multiple other works, Cline has recently released Not My Time to Go, a non-fiction book in which he relates the eleven times he has had near-death experiences, and this book is the basis for the author talk and book signing scheduled for Wednesday, October 5 at 6:00 pm.

The event is open to the public and advance registration, while not required, is appreciated so that the Library can ensure adequate seating. The Friends of Crewe Library will be providing light refreshments for those in attendance.
