And the Winner Is...

For six weeks, dozens of young Nottoway County residents read like crazy and kept track of the time they spent doing so. They turned in those reading logs, and each individual reader's minutes have been tallied. "Who read the most?" you ask. This year's big winner was Kailey Krotzer, and she is the happy recipient of a $50 gift card from Dollar General 😊

Our Thanks

In addition to (corporate) Dollar General, we'd like to thank several local businesses for their support of our Summer Reading program. McDonald's (Blackstone), the Big T (Crewe Tastee Freez), and Wendy's (Blackstone) generously contributed to allow us to provide incentives for youngsters to read and not let the "summer slide" get the best of them.

A Once in a Lifetime Experience

The Nottoway County Public Library System presents Sam Amir, musician extraordinaire, who will present a wonderful musical concert using the accordion in the Crewe Conference room (400 Tyler Street) on Thursday, August 8th at 6:00 p.m. Opportunities like this don't come along every day, so you'll want to be sure to join us!

Community News & Input

Summer might be winding down, but there still are several community celebrations in works, giving you lots of opportunities to get out and connect – or reconnect – with friends and neighbors.

The lineup starts with National Night Out, the Crewe PD's award-winning evening of festivities. Leave your wallet at home – the event is FREE – and come to Hooper Park on Tuesday, August 6th from 4-8pm to enjoy rides and games, face painting and food.

August 17th is the Unity in the Community Fest in Blackstone from 1-4pm. That Saturday, you can watch the softball tournament and your youngster can enjoy a free hot dog and a free hair cut.

You'll have a week to rest up before coming to Hooper Park on Saturday, August 24th for Nottoway Celebrates Family. The 10th annual event begins at noon and offers free food, activities, and information. At 4:00, the action shifts to the pavilion where you will be able to enjoy a variety of music presented by community churches.

Your library will be at each of these events, and we're looking forward to hearing from you. Stop by our table to fill out a survey and be entered to win a $10 gift card.
