

The Information Junction

For the Kids

Story Time on WSVS has come to an end, but now...

Ms. Gail will be sharing stories on YouTube and letting us know about some of the other resources the library offers

For the Adults

Be a Friend!

Friends of the Library Board Meetings Crewe:

1st Thursdays, 4-5pm (bi-monthly)

Blackstone:

3rd Tuesdays, 4-5pm

The Friends of the Library are non-profit, volunteer organizations which work to support the Nottoway County Public Libraries. They raise funds for library improvements and programs and gladly welcome new members.

The Nottoway County Public Library offers a wide selection of eBooks and digital magazines.

These are available to download through the website at www.nottlib.org

Additional eBooks Available

This just in from the Library of Virginia...

We're excited to let you know that, thanks to a generous grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Sciences to help ameliorate the pandemic's impact on local digital collections, your library now offers FREE access to JLG Digital, a simultaneous, multi-user stream of carefully curated eBooks and audiobooks from the Junior Library Guild! From now until 2/1/2022, you can access JLG Digital by visiting Find It Virginia.

Story Time at Your Convenience

The "morning show" version of Story Time that aired on WSVS am/fm has come to an end, but our socially distanced Story Time continues!

The Nottoway County Public Library now has its own You Tube channel, and you can find Ms. Gail there.

Don't forget...every time your pre-kindergarten child is read a story, it counts toward the 1000 Books Before Kindergarten goal, and that's true even if the story is being read and enjoyed on YouTube.

This Month at the Library of VA

A CONVERSATION WITH JOSHUA D. ROTHMAN

Thursday, May 13, 2021, from 6:00 PM–7:30 PM Online

Free but registration is required. <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/8776745329899525645>

Join Joshua Rothman, author of the stunning new book The Ledger and the Chain, and the Library of Virginia's Gregg Kimball in a virtual discussion about the rise of domestic slave trading as a grimly efficient business in the antebellum era and how its impact still reverberates today. Rothman, chair of the department of history at the University of Alabama, is the author of two prize-winning books, Flush Times and Fever Dreams and Notorious in the Neighborhood. For more information, contact Emma Ito at emma.ito@lva.virginia.gov or 804.692.3726.

What's Next?

Coming Soon... Blood Drives

We will be partnering with Burkeville Baptist Church for another American Red Cross blood drive on June 1 from 2 to 6pm. You can make a whole blood donation once every 56 days, so we hope that if the timing's right, you will join us! Schedule your appointment online at www.redcrossblood.org or by calling 1-800-REDCROSS.

If that date's not good for you, you have a second chance to donate...there will be a drive at Spring Hill Baptist Church in Blackstone on June 24th (2-7pm)

Online Assistance

Thanks (again) to a generous grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Sciences, Virginians will soon have access to an fantastic online resource. It's called Brainfuse, and this site has three parts to it, including one to help you find your next job.

Not only does JobNow offer resume templates and career assessments, it also offers live help with your resume and interview coaching. More information will be coming soon...
