Upcoming at Your Library

The Nottoway County Public Library System is sponsoring a presentation by Ms. Tilly Conley who will demonstrate how to burn beautiful and unique designs into plain wooden boxes and plaques. Learn how to make these unique works of art.

Ms. Conley will share her expertise, explaining what tools are needed and demonstrating the technique. The program will be held in the Crewe Conference Center on Thursday, January 17 at 6:00pm.

Animetrics and Paint by Stickers, an exciting experience for all ages, will return to the library Saturday, January 5th in Burkeville (10am); Saturday, January 12th at Blackstone (10am); and Monday, January 14th at Crewe (4pm).

Animetrics and Paint by Stickers assist you in creating geometric exotic animals and versions of masterpiece paintings to decorate your home.

Remember(ing) December

Building and decorating gingerbread houses is a tradition for some families, and it has become a favorite seasonal activity at the Nottoway County libraries, too. This year, nearly 50 people came to one of the three programs, with the largest number joining us in Burkeville.

We plan to build at each library branch again this year, and we hope that you'll plan to take part in December, 2019!

New members are always welcome and meetings are open to the public. Volunteers are needed for book sales, give-aways, and other activities – the choice is yours. When you join your local Friends group, how much time you give is up to you!
