Lynne Boswell and Her Wonderful Gourds

Ms. Boswell is a native of Burkeville and has become well known for her original and beautifully decorated gourds. She will join Nottoway Public Library on October 20th at 7:00 PM in the Crewe Conference Room to display her art and give a presentation on how to make gourds gorgeous. The presentation will include the growing, drying, painting and carving of gourds.

News You Can Use

Virginia Children's Book Festival: Oct. 17-19

The VCBF is a free, three-day festival hosted by Longwood University. Visit to find innovative, interactive programming that uses everything from robots to hip-hop to get children interested in reading.

The VCBF is more than just the festival, though...there is ongoing programming throughout the year! More than 20,000 books a year are distributed to foster homes, juvenile detention centers, departments of social services, and more.
