Becoming American:
A Documentary Film and Discussion Series on Our Immigration Experience

Becoming American is a free, public program designed to engage and enlighten audiences by screening documentary films that represent a selection of diverse immigration experiences drawn from both the past and the present. Each screening is held in the lecture hall from 5:30-7:00 PM with discussions led by staff from VCU Globe (Virginia Commonwealth University's Global Education Office).

The series begins on April 2nd with a screening of New York: A Documentary Film. The film on April 9th is My American Girls. The final film in the spring series, The New Americans, is scheduled for April 16th.

Becoming American is a project of City Lore in collaboration with the Immigration and Ethnic History Society and the International Coalition of the Sites of Conscience. The project has been made possibly by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities: Exploring the Human Endeavor and complements the Library's current exhibition, New Virginians: 1619-2019 & Beyond.
